Camp Kelley Packing Guide

Camp Kelley is an incredible way to start your Kelley career, and we want to help make it as awesome as possible for you. We've assembled this packing guide to help make sure you're ready for anything! Please take some time to read it carefully.

Remember that you will be outside for the majority of each day and parts of some evenings. Anything you wear may become stained with mud, grass, or any other materials that are found in nature. Due to the unpredictable weather, be prepared for hot, cold, wet, sunny, or cloudy days. Keep in mind that Indiana in August will be hot and humid. Before you pack, take a look at the weather forecast for the week.

Everything is on this packing list for a reason, so please bring all the required items. We recommend that you label everything. Camp Kelley is not responsible for any lost or stolen items. Space is at a premium, so pack efficiently. All of your gear should fit into something the size of a carry-on suitcase. You will be carrying your luggage from the bus to the cabin.

You are attending Camp Kelley to meet new people and make friends! Therefore, we ask that you leave electronic items at home. Cell phone coverage will be limited. Campers may not use phones during camp activities and power sources will be extremely limited.
